Summer Sessions Begin on June 9 and July 14 at Cedarville College

College Adjusts To GI Influx

Cedarville College is adjusting itself to the large influx of students. With the return of the G. I's and the new interest being manifested in higher education, Cedarville faces the future with great assurance. We find the G. I's a fine and wholesome group of men eager to study and get the most out of their education in the shortest possible time.

Present enrollment for the summer sessions indicates that we will have the largest mid-year school in the history of the college. Some fifty G. I's will be enrolled besides a large number of prospective "Cadet" teachers. Summer School will be under the capable leadership of Professor A. J. Hostetler who has made such an enviable record in the past. He will be assisted by a capable faculty. Prospective teachers should make application at once for the Summer School so that housing reservations may be made for them. It now seems likely that Harriman Hall will be used as a girls' dormitory for the Summer School.

The Religious Emphasis Week was very successful. Dr. Homer B. Henderson, '02, brought five strong addresses to the student body, and an equal number to nearby local churches. We plan to make this an annual event.

We are keeping the repair program before you. We were compelled to spend more money than had been pledged in our campaign. In order not to make these repairs a drain on our current budget we are asking you to join the many friends who have already made their contributions.

Plan now to be with us at the Commencement when we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of our first graduating class. The Alumni banquet will be held on Wednesday, May 28. Plan now to attend.

Religious Emphasis Week March 17-21

During the week of March 17 to 21, Religious Emphasis Week was observed here at the college. Chapel services were held each day at eleven to twelve o'clock. Dr. Homer Henderson, '02, pastor of Grove City, Pa., United Presbyterian Church was the speaker.

Rr. Henderson brought different messages for each day. Monday, "Who Is God?"; Tuesday, "Christ, The Son of God"; Wednesday, "Man"; Thursday, "Getting Acquainted with God"; Friday, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"

On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings Dr. Henderson addressed congregations of townspeople at the Presbyterian Church. On Wednesday evening he spoke at the United Presbyterian Church in Clifton.

His inspiring messages were well received by each of the different audiences to which he spoke.

Great Demand For Teachers

Cedarville College is cooperating fully with the Ohio Department of Education to meet the demand for elementary teachers. Courses to train teachers required for all grades will be offered at the two Summer Sessions from June 9 to August 16.

The following regulations are now in force in Ohio: For Elementary Teaching.

A temporary elementary certificate will be issued upon the request of a city, county or exempted village superintendent, upon evidence of a scarcity of suitable teachers otherwise certified, to those who have completed two years of training in an elementary curriculum of an approved institution providing courses satisfactorily completed include methods, children's literature, management, educational psychology, principles of teaching and student teaching.

Cadet Certificate

Because of the need for more elementary teachers, the Ohio Department of Education will issue a four-year "Cadet" certificate upon the recommendation of Cedarville College to any student who satisfactorily completes the following courses: Educational Psychology, Student Teaching, Art, English, Children's Literature, Health Activities, Music, Science, and Social Studies. A total of sixty-four hours is necessary for completion. Such certificate is stamped "Cadet" and is renewable only upon evidence of satisfactory teaching and the completion of 12 hours of additional credit.

Practice Teaching

Since facilities for practice teaching are limited in the Summer Session, applications for this work must be made not later than Thursday, May 29th. Fee, $5.00 per credit hour.

Training for Perm. Certificates

Any four-year provisional certificate issued since January 1, 1939, may be converted into an eight-year professional certificate of like type and validity upon evidence of 24 months of successful teaching experience under the provisional certificate to be converted and the completion of 18 semester hours of additional training.

The eight-year professional high school certificate may be made permanent upon evidence of five years of successful experience under the professional certificate and the completion of an appropriate Master's degree or the equivalent.

The eight-year professional elementary certificate may be made permanent upon evidence of forty months of successful experience under the professional certificate and the completion of a Bachelor's degree in elementary education.

The above picture was taken at the first presentation of the "Outstanding Athletic" award given by the Adam Hat Co. and Jack Dempsey.

During the second semester, the outstanding athlete of the year will be selected. He will be presented with this trophy at an athletic banquet planned for early spring.

Chi Mu Delta Initiates Eight

The Chi Mu Delta Fraternity accepted eight pledges as new members the 28th of March. The new members served six weeks pledgeship which was climaxed by initiation week. An acceptance dinner was held Tuesday, April 1st at the home of William Troute. The new members are: Delbert "Smoky" Stover, Dunbar, W. Va.; James Rowe, London; William Metterhouse, Summerville; New Jersey; Adolph Maslar, Summerville, New Jersey; Clarence "Chink" Jewell, Hamden; John Townsley, Cedarville, Ohio.

The fraternity will sponsor a spring formal dance in conjunction with the Chi Sigma Phi Sorority. The date has not been set as yet, but it probably will

If the minimum salary law, as proposed by the State Legislature is finally passed, it no doubt will apply only to teachers who have a Bachelor's degree. It might be profitable for teachers who have less than four years of training to continue in their college work toward earning such a degree.

Music Department Is Reorganized

The Department of Music at Cedarville College is gradually developing under a reorganized curriculum. The spring catalogue announces nineteen different courses of music which can be given (or taken) and registrations for this second semester show an increasing interest in all musical activities. On Mondays and Wednesdays the Chapel resounds with music lessons—the "ah's" of the voice students and the "tuikee" on the Steinway by the piano students. The College Mixed Chorus meets at noons two days per week, and they are assiduously working on the "The Holy City" by A. R. Gaul for a Spring performance. This Chorus presented several numbers at Wilberforce All-College Night February 12th. Kathleen Evans and Max Sisson have sung "The Lord's Prayer" as a duet on several occasions. Conner Merritt, our tenor soloist, has presented solos on various programs.

The class in Music Appreciation listens to and identifies records as part of their training. Some good friends of the College have loaned us good records to use. We need more records! If anyone has classical or good jazz records to either loan to or give to the Music Department, we would appreciate it very much.

be held in early May.

Plans are also being formulated for acquiring a fraternity house sometime in the near future.

Dramatics Club Presents Play

The Dramatics Club of Cedarville College presented "Pride and Prejudice", its first production in several years, on Thursday evening, March 13. Miss Carrie Rife, Faculty Advisor of the Dramatics Club, directed this dramatization of Jane Austen's well-known novel.

The scene was laid in late 18th Century England, and the cast of characters was as follows:

Mr. Bennet, an easy going man, Carl Watkins; Mrs. Bennet, his flighty wife, Donna Thompson; Jane, their gentle daughter, Betty Sickles; Elizabeth, their independent daughter, Claire Stormont; Mary, their bookish daughter, Eleanor Weismiller; Catherine, their fretful daughter, Florence Bowers; Mr. Collins, a pompous clergyman, John Skillings; Mr. Bingley, a friendly young man, Kenneth Wilburn; Miss Bingley, his haughty sister, Betty Rose Beattie; Mr. Darcy, a proud young man, Ted Harsh; Lady Catherine De Bourgh, his overbearing aunt, Beatrice Ervin; Lady Lucas, a neighbor, Bonnie Dillon; Charlotte, her plain daughter, Kathleen Evans; Mr. Wickham, a young officer, Max Sisson; Hill, the butler, Jack Stolson;

The play was well received by the audience of friends and students.

Special numbers between scene included "Begin the Beguine", a saxophone solo by David Sisson, piano numbers by Gloria Abels, and a dramatization of Mr. Vahinger's adventures in the Pentagon Building by Robert Filer and Arthur (Curly) Harkins.

Special credit should go to the managers, A. R. Maslar and Bill Metterhouse, who contributed so much towards the play's success.

We hope that this will be a new beginning for the Dramatics Club, and that it will have as great a future as it has past.

Y. W. C. A. Has Many Activities

There are many wholesome and delightful experiences in life. Each of us could suggest any number, as—appreciation of beauty, friendship, love of home and love of country. The list could be extended indefinitely, for man's experiences reach the limits of all human emotions. One of the finest of these experiences and the one that stands at the top is worship of God.

The joy of worship is not entirely defineable, just as we cannot explain the beauty of a sunset or the melody of a great symphony.

Our Y. W. tries to give each of its members a varied and comprehensive program. One which gives, not only the satisfaction of useful lectures and service projects, but beyond all this, that intangible, yet very real beauty which is only to be found in the contemplation of the highest things in life as we reach out to the majesty of God and the love of Christ in programs and praise.

Our devotional services have measured up to this high aim and we would like to urge all the girls to attend.

I am only one—but I am one
I cannot do everything but I can do something
What I can do, I ought to do
What I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do.

"I may only be a cog but I can click"

For the past four weeks, we have enjoyed special series of informative lectures by Dr. Nehls of South Charleston.

Thus brought to a close the first Ohio Intercollegiate Basketball tournament. With Cedarville College taking 1st place trophy. Interstate Business College taking runners up trophy. Ohio University Branch of Portsmouth the Consolation trophy. A wrist watch was given to the best sports player, this going to Mr. Milhuff of Interstate Business College. Gold basketballs were given to the players of the winning team and silver basketballs to the players of the runners-up team. It is hoped that this tournament

College Co-Op Is a Success

The Cedarville College Co-Op store has been reported a decided success. The store was started in October, 1946, under the management of William Ball, '47.

The store furnishes the G. I.'s and other students with athletic and school equipment. At the beginning, the store contained only a "coke" machine, but later more equipment was provided and displayed in show cases. Refreshments were added and Bernice Knecht and Betty Beattie employed to meet the demands of selling.

Arrangements are being made for the store to be moved in the early spring to the new government building which is to be erected on the college campus.

Alumni News

Two of our graduates, the Rife brothers, have joined the ranks of authors. John Merle Rife, A. B. 1916, has just published a Beginning Greek Book, which he tried out on his students at Muskingum College before submitting it to the General public. The text has been adopted at the University of Chicago, from which he holds his Ph. D., 1932.

His brother, David Cecil Rife, BS., 1922, is a professor at O. S. U. from which he obtained his Ph. D. in 1933. He is quite an authority on Eugenics and Heredity, and has published a book on the subject, The Dice of Destiny, which is favorably mentioned in the bibliography of Meredith's Hygiene. The Rife brothers are cousins of our Professor Carrie Rife.

Wilbur Gerald Shaw, a student of Cedarville College forty years ago, died at Xenia, Ohio, February 23, 1947. He was one of a family of ten children, eight of whom attended Cedarville College and six of whom graduated here.
